About 60 per cent of all PoEs (air, land, and sea) in the MENA region are now > fully operational and imposing no restrictions. There are six countries that still have national emergency in place.

During the month of June, the region continued to witness the progressive > reopening of international airports (14 more airports are now fully operational).

In both Algeria and Yemen, the majority of airports are still closed (two out of nine, and two out of five respectively).
